

Channeling of Angelic and Archangelic Realms

Greetings,

You have been invited to a session of healing and channeling. A 3-4 hour immersion into a divine energy field, a familiar energy to humanity for thousands of years. Asil (the host) has been channeling for the purposes of healing, divine intervention and delivering timeless wisdom through the guides.

About Asil

Four years ago, Asil experienced a deep spiritual transformation, in which he connected to the channeled guides. At that point he was not aware they are of the angelic realms. The intensity of this experience left him in a state of bliss and questioning all aspects of life, setting a milestone in his current phase of life. He was given a choice to work with the guides from a blank slate, which would require him to let go of any past traditions, rituals, healing methods, dogma, and teachers that he had learned. So he decided to travel and spend time in as much quiet contemplation as possible, as the guides were adjusting his system physically and energetically. All these changes physical and energetic in nature happened, so the guides could work through him, without negatively impacting his system with the high energy that passes through, as Asil channels.

Asil has been on the spiritual path and working with healing methodologies for more than 18 years, during this time also serving as a CEO and corporate executive in the traditional structures of society. All aspects of his past have contributed to who he is today.

Much surrender, sacrifice and devotion have brought Asil to the place where he now serves the divine, so that the divine forces of creation can serve humanity through him as an instrument.

Asil has received the explicit instructions and authorization of the guides to serve as a channel and healer, travel around the world and deliver this work to as many people as possible. Asil has since then travelled and offered this divine opening in many cities in the US, Europe, Asia and Middle East.

Who is this session for?

All ages, all religions, all colors, all genders are welcome to receive. The very young can be challenged by the nature of being quiet for a long period of time. For some of those that are too weak or challenged to come in person, we will keep them in our hearts and prayers as the session unfolds. At this point we also cannot receive our loyal pet and animal friends.

Physical, emotional, mental and spiritual healings have been witnessed and received in these sessions.

The nature of this work does not carry any dogma, belief system or any specific practice.

How much is the session?

The big group sessions are free and accessible to everyone. By its nature this work is unconditional in this setting. There are though many costs involved to create an event of this kind, including venue, transportation, etc. We are highly dependent on donations and contributions from participants and individual sponsors. We never expect but are always receiving in appreciation and deep gratitude your contributions. Our suggested donation ranges are adjusted at every venue and city we visit.

What should I bring to the session? What should I wear?

We would love to see you in white clothing if you can. Bright colors also welcome. Please avoid wearing black.

If you have a mat, blanket, cushion, meditation pillow etc. please bring those along so that you are comfortable during the session.

If you have spiritual objects of personal connection please bring them along. Photos of loved ones are also welcome.

What to expect?

Asil will be channeling over a period of 2-3 hours angelic and archangelic beings. In this timeframe, there will be times of silence and quiet contemplation, energy healing (“hands-on” and “hands-off”) and spoken channeling.

You are invited to come with an open mind and heart, and ready to give permission to be worked on for healing and growth. We recommend that you open to the energy that is brought into the room with intent, prayer and spirit.

It is suggested to experience the event sitting and in a meditative state, while a regular meditation practice is not a prerequisite. We understand that some need to lie down, may even fall asleep. We will only wake you up if you are snoring. :-)

We ask that you free yourself of any responsibilities for the timeframe of the session, so that you can be fully present. Turn off your phone during the entire session.

No food, photography or video is allowed during the session.

How to prepare?

Any existing spiritual practice (meditations, prayers, yoga, etc.) is good to intensify as you prepare for the session. Aligning your intention for yourself and your loved ones. Quieting your mind and heart, so this experience can serve you in the deepest way.

- ✦ Days before: Some people begin to experience early signs of divine help before the session- pay attention & take note. Some early signs that have been reported are light-headedness, vivid dreams, headaches, high pitch sounds, etc. Please no alcohol, drugs or medications (that you can safely skip). Please let us know if you have any difficult sickness of a physical or spiritual kind.
- ✦ Night before: Try to get a good night sleep. Skip the party, socializing, intense movies and set an intention before you go to bed for the next day's session.
- ✦ Day of: Eat healthy nutritional food. Try to skip lunch so that you fast for a few hours before the session. It helps to be light in the body.

What happens during the session?

In the beginning a quick introduction and any comments/concerns will be addressed.

Starting phase:

It takes Asil about 15-30 minutes to get into a trance state. This is the preparation phase of his energy and physical body to hold the high energy of high consciousness realms. He will go through shaking, and breathing as well as autonomous hand/arm movements.

The healing part:

After this state the first channeled healers and angels will start working in the room, some through Asil's body and some directly through the etherial realm. Some participants feel a sensation of peace or sleepiness during this phase.

Often an Archangel will also enter at this point to perform the healing, it may or may not announce itself verbally to the group. Asil will be often guided to walk around and work on individuals hands-on.

Once the healing is complete, the healing spirit/angel will often thank for your participation and may give instructions.

The spoken channeling:

At this point a channeled being (often Emmanuel) will connect with Asil and speak through him to the group present in the room. He will first offer wisdom, and may later open the space for questions that participants may have. He will then finish the session and the channeled beings will leave the space, while the healing energy stays for some time.

Closing:

During this time as Asil's consciousness starts to return to the forefront, he will answers as himself any other open questions participants may have, and team members may give you instructions for the next couple of days.

What kind of questions can be asked to the channeled being during the Q&A?

In a big group session, the channeled beings will not answer personal questions directly, e.g. what your purpose is, if you should leave your job, or marry your partner. The channeled being will also not answer questions that regard the future, your personal future or the future of humanity directly.

We suggest to ask open ended questions and not “yes, no” questions. Please stick to one question per person until there is space for more questions. We ask you to pose short questions and not fill this sacred time with long personal stories. We have small group events for these kind of questions/requests.

We have assembled a list of frequently asked questions that have been answered in the past by the channel, this will offer more perspective on what to ask. (Link: working on it...)

What happens to Asil during the channeling? Where is his consciousness?

Asil is in a trance state and an observer in his own body during the channeling, yet aware and also in conversation with the beings connecting to him, as he is channeling them.

During the channeling period Asil is aware of the room, and the participants. His movements are all autonomous, except when he is guided to walk to specific individuals for hands-on healing. He remembers about half of the spoken channeling.

How to integrate after the session?

First and foremost we recommend that you have no other plans on the same day after the session. Eat light afterwards, rest and sleep. Also the day after it is recommended to sleep, as your body is catching up with the changes and the potential interventions conducted in the session. We have created a list of potential symptoms and suggested activities for the days after and continued connection with the guides.
